

Border County Notes

Friday, November 12, 1909.

CARROLL.

Carroll county needs a new jail.

John Derry has bought Porter's inn in Carrollton from E. L. Porter.

John F. Grass has bought 40 acres of land, near White Rock, for $850.

By a score of 11 to 2 the Carrollton basket-ball team defeated the Bosworth team Friday.

Evangelist Tom Sexton has begun a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church in Carrollton.

A box car on the Wabash, used for a cook room at Norborne, caught fire and burned up Monday.

Martin, son of Harry Klanke of Norborne, hurt himself in a runaway Monday. His ankle was dislocated.

John Edwards has sold his interest in the restaurant and meat market firm of Todd & Edwards in Bosworth to G. M. Rigg.

James Benningfield, aged 40 years, died of typhoid fever Thursday at his home, near Carrollton. His wife and three children survive him.

Carrollton may have a business college. Dolph Maupin may establish a commercial school in that city similar to the one in Chillicothe of which he is president.

By a score of 23 to 0 the Hale girls' basket-ball team went down to defeat before the Meadville team. The boys of the two schools played basket-ball and Hale won 9 to 8.

The body of Mrs. A. H. Bailey, 47 years old, who died of consumption in Kansas City, Wednesday, was brought to Carrollton for burial. Her husband and three children survive her. The Bailey's formerly lived in Carroll county.

During the storm Sunday night Joseph Rea lost seven head of cattle by a stroke of lightning at his farm, near Carrollton. Geo. Lueder's barn, filled with hay and corn, near Sugartree, was destroyed by fire caused by lightning.

Billy Elder, 16 year-old, son of Andrew R. Elder of near Wakenda, was killed Saturday at Napoleon, a small town on the Missouri river, by Walter Thomas, a negro. Young Elder got into a difficulty with two negroes, father and son, and attacked the younger darkey with a knife. The old man struck Elder on the head with a scantling and the young one drew a pistol and fired three shots into his breast while the young man lay prostrate. He was killed instantly. The negroes fled, but were captured and placed in jail at Richmond. Elder had been drinking and was in an ugly mood.

MARRIAGES.

J. S. Parkins of Norborne and Miss Leola Wiley of Carrollton. Walter Hermann and Miss Cora Brookover, both of Bosworth.

Howard Kuglar of Kansas and Miss Daisy Maud Smith of Carrollton.

Fred Merwin of Kansas City and Miss Blanche E. Meville of near Bogard.

Leonard Herron and Miss Christine Shipp, both of Hale.

Mrs. Lizzie James of Huntsville is suing her husband, Aaron L. James, for divorce, alleging faithlessness and naming Valma Luceia as his "affinity." She also alleges that her husband had mistreated her and permitted his 16 year-old son to strike and abuse her.

HOWARD.

John P. Brown has bought the Leo Hume farm, near Glasgow.

J. F. Withers of Fayette fell on a corn stalk and jabbed his eye badly.

Mrs. Livengood of the Glasgow bottoms had her left hip fractured Thursday.

John Maurer of near Armstrong has made 1,940 gallons of sorghum this year.

Bryan & Blakey have sold their buggy and implement business in Fayette to C. W. Street.

The Central College football team of Fayette was defeated by the Warrensburg Normal eleven Monday by a score of 12 to 0.

June Hughes, a Glasgow negro, was arrested Saturday on the charge of carrying a pistol and was fined $100 and costs.

Miss Phobe Andrews, 20 years old, died of tuberculosis Tuesday at the home of her father, Wiley Andrews, of near Rocheport.

Harry Settle of near Fayette was kicked in the mouth by a horse Thursday that knocked two of his teeth out and broke two bones in his lower right arm.

Mrs. George Brill, who has been in declining health for some time, passed away Thursday at her home, north of Fayette. Her remains were buried in New York.

The new Methodist parsonage in Fayette has just been completed. It is a thoroughly modern structure of eight large rooms and two halls with all modern conveniences.

An Armstrong woman last week placed a sack of sweet potatoes in her smokehouse. Next morning the potatoes were missing. She lifted a plank on the floor and there were the potatoes all stored nicely away for the future use of the mice family.

MARRIAGES.

Richard G. Estill of Estill and Miss Mary Henrietta King of Alfred, Tex.

N. B. Pulliam and Miss Pearl May Hughes, both of near Fayette.

James B. Swinney of Pleasant Hill and Miss Grace Inness of near Fayette.

Geo. Hill of Glasgow and Miss Ada Brummell of Marshall.

Wm. L. Hannaca and Miss Lynetta Topliff, both of Glasgow.

LIVINGSTON

The Central school building at Chillicothe has been closed on account of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Katherine Keine, aged 61 years, died at her home, near Chillicothe, Friday morning.

The Chillicothe Normal football team was defeated by the Osteopath team from Kirkeville Wednesday.

Max Stewart has purchased the interest of his partner, Noah Raulie, in their repair and bicycle business in Chillicothe.

Thos. Dayton of Medicine town-ship, who was recently examined in county court to test his sanity, has been declared mentally sound.

The home of S. Hallenborg in Chillicothe was slightly damaged by fire Friday morning. Joe Rowley had bought the property for $675.

Simon Clingsmith of Chula is reported to have become insane at some place in Arkansas. Clingsmith has been missing for some time.

Geo. Huffman has filed suit in the Livingston circuit court against the Wabash railroad for

DR PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

Surpasses every other leavening agent in making healthful, delicious food
NO ALUM

READ THE LABEL
Buy only baking powder whose label indicates cream of tartar

$5,000 for injuries received while unloading a car.

The Trenton High school football aggregation again met defeat Saturday at the hands of the Chillicothe High school eleven by a score of 27 to 0.

Col. S. G. Swetland, a native of New York, aged 89 years, one of the most prominent men of Northwest Missouri, passed away Saturday at his rooms in Chillicothe. His widow and two children survive him.

John W. Farmer of Macon was in Chillicothe Tuesday with a warrant for the arrest of his wife and 16 year-old daughter who had left him several days before and whom he openly charges with improper conduct. The woman and girl are employed in a hotel in Chillicothe. Mrs. Farmer has the appearance of a hard working woman and made no denial of her husband's accusation, saying that she had been forced to do things against her will to keep her children from starving. The girl and little son upheld all their mother's statements and the sympathy of the hearers seemed to be with her.

MARRIAGES.

Hal McCormick and Miss Cordelia Myers, both of Chillicothe.

LINN.

Mrs. Dower died at her home, north of Laeade, Thursday.

Rozella, little daughter of Geo. D. Ross of Brookfield, died Friday.

Mrs. Mary I. Walker, 63 years old, died at Norman, Okla., Friday.

Mrs. Applegate of Brookfield celebrated her 86th birthday Sunday.

Miss Evelyn West of Brookfield is to marry Horace Johnson November 17.

Geo. W. Shaw has disposed of his harness-shop in Purdin to George Cumbo.

Chas. R. Hamil has sold his 80-acre farm, near Laeade, to E. F. Brener for $100 per acre.

Thos. Daly has sold his 415-acre farm, near Purdin, to W. F. McGreer of Iowa for $60 per acre.

By a score of 44 to 0 the Marcelline football team was defeated by Brookfield's eleven Saturday afternoon.

Fred L. Gardner, formerly of Brookfield, and Miss Lillian Albers of Moberly are to marry November 17.

R. J. Alexander has traded the Foreman house in Laeade to Thos. Darrell for the latter's farm of 120 acres, near Bucklin.

Meadville and Laeade High school football eleven played a game Thursday. The Laeade team won over Meadville by a score of 17 to 0.

The football game between the Linneus High school team and the Bles Military academy eleven from Macon resulted in a victory for Bles by a score of 98 to 2.

Mrs. W. J. Brewer of Bucklin fell from a stove where she had climbed to adjust a stove pipe Saturday, and dislocated her right shoulder. Mrs. Brewer is 65 years old.

A thief entered Barton's drug store in Laeade Monday night by breaking a glass out of a rear window. A few bottles of dope, some cigars and 75 cents in money were missing.

MARRIAGES.

Arthur E. Brewer and Miss Myrtle V. Allison, both of Brookfield.

David Lisby and Miss Lillie Myrtle Young, both of Fountain Grove.

Alexander H. Woodside and Miss Grace E. Garrett, both of Purdin.

Edward S. Terwilliger and Miss Leslie Belle Moore, both of Linneus.

David A. Peery and Miss Laura Pearl Knapp, both of Linneus.

Clark Gossick of Conway, Texas, and Miss Myrtle L. Staats of Fountain Grove.

MACON.

Mrs. John T. Williams of Bevier, aged 63 years, died Sunday. Six children survive her. "The Idle Hour," a nickleodeon, has been opened up in Macon by S. Weisenborn.

R. B. Enyeart of near Atlanta, justice of peace in Independence township for 30 years, has resigned.

John W. Farmer of Macon, who made a statutory complaint against his wife and daughter at Chillicothe last week, later refused to prosecute.

A barn belonging to C. J. Dubois in Macon caught fire Wednesday and burned down. Adjoining sheds and the residence of Theo. Gary were damaged by the flames. The fire is thought to have originated from burning leaves.

MARRIAGES.

Elbert Keyte and Miss Eunice Jones, both of Elmer.

Dave Kifford and Miss Arabel Walker, both of Bevier.

Joseph Thomas Harris and Miss Clotile Noel, both of Macon.

Guy D. Stutes of Macon and Miss Lottie M. Brewer of Bucklin.

Elmer Glenn Stotts of LaPlata and Miss Okla. Bell Helm of Macon.

Howard Wendell Stephens of Denver and Miss Zelma Vida Atterberry of Atlanta.

RANDOLPH.

There is a case of diphtheria, near Clark.

The Randolph County Medical association met in Huntsville Thursday.

A. G. Fidler sold his home place in Moberly to Henry Williams for $3,000.

Henry T. Owens has sold his residence property in Moberly to J. W. Buster for $1,600.

Samuel Tedford, a pioneer resident of Randolph county, died at Florence, Colo., Sunday.

Tate Reynolds has traded a 10-room house in Moberly to Mrs. Mary Quayle for a house and two lots.

Dr. S. P. Owen, 54 years old, of Moberly died of paralysis Tuesday morning. Two children survive him.

The revival services at the Christian church in Huntsville closed Thursday night with about 15 additions to the church.

John T. Knox of Clifton Hill and W. I. Westlake of Huntsville are to open a general store with a large stock in Clifton Hill December 1.

Eddie, 8 year-old son of Mr. Seymour, was painfully injured Friday at his home in Moberly by exploding a torpedo. The explosion tore his hand and arm badly.

Matt Coulson, a miner of near Huntsville, was injured by a large rock falling on his leg. His leg was broken and the ligaments torn loose. His hip was slightly injured.

Bill Collins of Milton came to Moberly Saturday and, getting on a jag, fell asleep on the counter in a grocery store. When awakened by an officer he attacked the man with a knife. Collins was hauled to jail in a cart.

J. M. Burton of near Clifton Hill, while feeding his cattle Wednesday, was attacked by a large bull that knocked him about eight feet. The animal's long horns, striking the ground prevented a serious injury.

MARRIAGES.

Michael Gast of Indiana and Miss Anna Karle of Moberly.

Fred Sparks, formerly of Moberly, and Mrs. Della Ladlie of Kansas City.

Joe Richeson and Miss Lurline Hurt, both of Clifton Hill.

Everett L. Sears and Miss Minnie Richeson, both of Moberly.

H. T. McCanne and Miss Effie M. Hinton, both of Jacksonville.

R. M. True of Moberly and Miss Annie Stockton of Rocheport.

J. H. Broadbuss of Darksville and Miss Ruth Cooley of Clifton Hill.

Delmer Webb and Miss Mary Fidler, both of Moberly.

SALINE.

Wm. Pinsot, 50 years old, died Friday at his home, near Slater.

Teddy, a small son of Walter Morgan, has a serious case of diphtheria.

W. T. Borroughs & Son's have opened a new real estate agency in Marshall.

John Duval, one of the oldest citizens of Gilliam, a shoemaker at that place for 20 years, died Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Hickerson of Arrow Rock died of cancer of the stomach Friday. Her husband and one sister survive her.

The C. & A. depot at Blackburn caught fire Thursday from an unknown cause and was badly damaged by the flames.

The Christian church residence, occupied by Mr. Sponsler in Slater, caught fire Thursday and was slightly damaged.

The football game between the Marshall and Slater High school teams Friday resulted in a victory for Slater. Score, 38 to 0.

Bert Walton and wife were arrested at Slater Thursday. They were wanted at Montgomery City for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Mrs. Gus Cunningham, 34 years old, died of blood poisoning Sunday at her home, near Blackwater. Her husband and four children mourn her death.

Albert Taylor of Slater sustained injuries in a street car accident in Kansas City some time ago, and last week obtained a judgment against the Metropolitan Street Car Co. of that city for $8,250.

John W. Golfero, keeper of a restaurant and rooming-house in Marshall, charged with the murder of John Spangler, was acquitted in criminal court at Marshall Wednesday. The verdict was unanimous.

Levi Jackson, a negro boy, 16 years old, forged two checks Monday, signing the name of Al Darling, a Marshall contractor. They were made payable to the negro and were on the Wood & Huston bank of that city. The amounts were $450 and $825. The forgery was discovered and the negro placed in jail.

MARRIAGES.

Frank Butler and Miss Odessa Wood, both of Slater.

James Webb and Mrs. Josie Potter, both of Marshall.

Jacob Webb and Miss Josie May Earle, both of Slater.

Dr. Hazard Sullivan and Miss Riva Hamner, both of Miami.

Julius Reith of Blackburn and Miss Annie Neimer of Nelson.

Harry Herring and Miss Grace Montgomery, both of Longwood.

Wm. H. Schlue and Miss Orabelle Hedges, both of Sweet Springs.

FALSE ECONOMY.

There is a man in this county who paid $9,600 for a quarter section and to save a few cents did not have the abstract to this farm brought to date nor passed on by an attorney. When too late he found an outstanding dower and he had to pay several hundred dollars to get good title. He practised false economy. Have us perfect your title to-day. This is the best and safest way.

MINTER & LAMKIN
Keytesville, Mo.

FARM LOANS

ABSTRACTS

Free from Alcohol

Since May, 1906, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been entirely free from alcohol. If you are in poor health, weak, pale, nervous, ask your doctor about taking this non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. If he has a better medicine, take his. Get the best always. This is our advice.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor
Ayer's

A sluggish liver means a coated tongue, a bad breath, and constipated bowels. The question is, "What is the best thing to do under such circumstances?" Ask your doctor if this is not a good answer: "Take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills." Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.